Overnight in Fatima. [D]

Day 3: Saturday 5/13 FATIMA

With messages for the faithful, Mary Mother of God appeared to three village shepherd children on the 13th of each month, from May through October of the year 1917. Today marks the 100th anniversary of the first message. "I desire that a chapel be built here in my honor. I am the Lady of the Rosary. I have come to warn the faithful to amend their lives and to ask pardon for their sins. People must pray the rosary every day and bear all the sufferings that God sends them," was her message to the children. Today we participate in the anniversary celebration. We return to our hotel for dinner before our participation in reciting the rosary and our walk in the candlelight procession. Overnight in Fatima. [B,D]

Day 4: Sunday 5/14 FATIMA

CHILDREN OF FATIMA

We begin in Cova da Iria, where we visit the Chapel of the Apparitions, celebrate Mass at the Basilica (subject to confirmation) that houses the tombs of Francisco and Jacinta, and the Perpetual Adoration Chapel. We continue to Aljustrel, where we visit the home of the Marto family (the birthplace of Jacinta and Francisco) and then the home of Lucia. In Aljustrel, we also see the site of the apparitions of St Michael to the children. We follow the Way of the Cross and visit Valinhos, the site of Our Lady's fourth apparition. Before returning to our hotel, we visit the parish church where the children were baptized. This evening we again take part in the Candlelight Procession. Dinner and overnight in Fatima. [B,D]

Day 5: Monday 5/15 FATIMA / ALCOBAÇA / OBIDOS / SANTA-REM / FATIMA

This morning, we begin with a visit to Alcobaça, a town southeast of Fatima to visit the monastery of Santa Maria de Alcobaça, an architectural masterpiece. The nave is immense, the transept has medieval tombs, to the right you will see the final resting place of Inês de Castro, and to the left lies the remains of King Pedro I who before his death ordered his resting place opposite that of his true love, Inês, who was brutally murdered. The monastery was home to monks for nearly 800 years. We depart Alcobaça for the spectacular medieval walled town of Óbidos. An old royal tradition whereby kings offered the city to their wives gave way to the town's nickname, the 'Town of Queens'. In Óbidos, we will see charming churches that were erected in celebration and honor of a queen who had given birth to a child. This town is beautifully adorned with well-preserved white homes, architecturally designed to incorporate contemporary Portuguese, Spanish, Italian, and Flemish elements, small cozy squares and romantic recesses. The town boasts architectural treasures that include: the Misericórdia Church (c. 15th), the São Pedro Church (c. 18th) and the São Martinho

Chapel (c. 14th), and the Paço Real (Royal Palace). You may catch a glimpse of the aqueduct. This town is sure to offer plenty of photo opportunities as it is one of the most picturesque and most visited towns in the country. Next, we visit Santarém to visit and celebrate Mass at the Church of St. Stephen (subject to confirmation), where a Eucharistic miracle took place in the 13th century. When a woman attempted to steal a consecrated Host from Mass, the Host visibly became flesh and began to bleed. To this day the precious relic remains incorrupt for all to see. The church has since been renamed the Church of the Holy Miracle. From there, we return to Fatima for dinner and overnight. [B,D]

Day 6: Tuesday 5/16 FATIMA / LISBON

We bid farewell to Fatima and travel south to Lisbon to enjoy a brief scenic tour of Lisbon. We view Rossio and Comercio squares, drive through the old quarter and stop to visit the birthplace of St. Anthony of Padua and the church dedicated to him. Tradition tells us that the church was built on the site where the saint was born, in 1195. Then, we visit and celebrate Mass at the oldest church in the city, 12th century Lisbon Cathedral (subject to confirmation). Next, we visit the Basilica da Estrela, an obligation promised by Queen Mary I of Portugal after birthing an heir to the Portuguese throne. The enormous church can be seen from the distance. From there, we visit the Church of St. Roque. The rich interior décor dates back to the 16-18th centuries and continues to draw many visitors to the city. Our journey now takes us to St. George Castle, Belem Tower and St. Jeronimos Monastery. We check in at our hotel for a farewell dinner and overnight. [B,D]

Day 7: Wednesday, May 17, 2017, LISBON / AMSTERDAM / USA

Today we begin our journey back to the United States. We arrive home amazed by the grandeur of God's beautiful landscape and inspired by the spiritual example of the saints. [B]
