MASS WILL BE CELEBRATED DAILY

Day 1: Tuesday, August 28, 2018, USA / DUBLIN

Pilgrims are welcomed at an international airport for our departing flight to the Emerald Isle aboard a wide-bodied jet, arriving the next morning. Meals are served on board.

Day 2: Wednesday 8/29, DUBLIN / DOWNPATRICK / BELFAST

DOWNPATRICK

three times daily. After Mass, we check in at our hotel for a welcome dinner and overnight. [D]

Day 3: Thursday 8/30, BELFAST / ARMAGH / BELFAST

This morning we awake to sights and sounds of the Emerald Isle. Our first stop will be in Armagh, a city south-west of Belfast that actually dates back to the time of St. Patrick. The city boasts two cathedrals, both are called St. Patrick's Cathedral, but on opposing hills. The cathedral is neo-gothic with mosaic walls and the most visually striking of the two. We will visit and celebrate morning Mass at St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Cathedral (subject to confirmation). Then, we make our way northeast to Belfast to tour the city and visit the Titanic Museum, master-planned over 185 acres of the heritage site where the Titanic was designed and built. We spend time at the Museum before we return to our hotel. This evening, join friends or enjoy a private sampling of the delicious culinary delights of the Irish as dinner is on your own. Overnight in Belfast. [B]

Day 4: Friday 8/31, BELFAST / GIANTS CAUSEWAY / LETTERKENNY

Giant's Causeway is a unique geological landscape that is truly unlike any place else on earth. The causeway's interlocking hexagonal columns, resulting from the basaltic lava of an ancient volcanic eruption 6 million years ago, forever changed County Antrim's northern coast, earning it the prestige of a "Unesco World Heritage Site" title. Reading and hearing about the causeway does not begin to offer any realistic glimpse into this natural phenomenon. Only seeing is believing! Therefore, we shall "see". From there, we travel to Derry (or Londonderry), a city steeped in history. Between 1613 and 1618, 400 workers built what would become the last of Ireland's walled cities. We will walk the walls before we proceed to the impressive St. Columb's Cathedral that dates back between 1628 and 1633. The Chapter House in the cathedral contains the 17th-century locks and keys of the city. Then, we proceed to Letterkenny to check in at our hotel for dinner and overnight. [B,D]

GIANT'S CAUSEWAY

Day 5: Saturday 9/1, LETTERKENNY / KNOCK / CROAGH PATRICK / WESTPORT

We begin in Knock at the basilica and shrine. It was here in 1879 that the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Joseph, John the Evangelist, angels, and Jesus (as the Lamb of God) appeared. That apparition was witnessed by 15 people (men, women, and children of varying ages). In 1979, John Paul II visited the shrine and offered the most precious Papal gift called the Golden Rose, which signifies a place of special devotion and reverence. Mass will be celebrated here (subject to confirmation). From there, we proceed to Croagh Patrick, Ireland's Holy Mountain. Here St. Patrick, in the year 441 AD, spent the forty days of Lent in prayer and fasting. Then, we complete today's journey as we arrive in beautiful Westport, where we check in at our hotel for dinner and overnight. [B,D]

KYLEMORE

Day 6: Sunday 9/2, WESTPORT / CONNEMARA / KYLEMORE / WESTPORT

We travel through the Connemara region to Kylemore Abbey, a gothic castle on the shores of Kylemore Lough (lake), deep in County Galway. We visit the Abbey and spend time on the grounds exploring the quiet beauty, the little church, the gardens, and the wonderful gift shop full of Irish treasures. Mass will be celebrated at the little church (subject to confirmation). We return to Westport where the remainder of the day is free to explore independently. This evening, wander the streets of Westport and sample authentic Irish fare at the restaurant of your choice as dinner is on your own. After dinner, choose from the endless options of pubs occupying every other storefront and enjoy a glass of Guinness or a mug of Irish ale. The city boasts one of the most well-known and visited pubs around, Matt Malloy's. Many of the pubs, including Matt Malloy's, have traditional Irish music and/or dancing as well. Overnight in Westport. [B]

Day 7: Monday 9/3, WESTPORT / GALWAY / CLIFFS OF MOHER / BUNRATTY / LIMERICK

We board our coach this morning and travel to Galway to celebrate Mass (subject to confirmation). You will have free time to explore on your own or take an optional walking tour with the escort to explore Galway city. Galway is a vibrant cultural experience packed with street artists, magicians and musicians, restaurants, shops, and more. Next, we make our way to the incredible Cliffs of Moher, one of Ireland's most stunning locations where you stand in awe of the natural beauty of giant ramparts against the aggressive might of the Atlantic Ocean. In some places the cliffs rise over 700 feet and stretch for almost 5 miles. We visit O'Briens Tower (weather permitting), a viewing vantage point located on the highest cliff. This evening, we will attend Bunratty Castle's festive Medieval Banquet, a traditional-Irish dinner experience with story-telling and song. We check in at our hotel in Limerick for an overnight. [B,D]

GALLARUS ORATORY

Day 8: Tuesday 9/4, LIMERICK / DINGLE / GALLARUS ORATORY / LIMERICK

Mass this morning will be at St. John's Cathedral (subject to confirmation). The cathedral is the tallest church in Ireland. Then, be prepared today to see some of the most spectacular scenery in Ireland. While the metaphorical battle still rages over which is preferred, the Ring of Kerry or the Dingle Peninsula, the Dingle Peninsula is shorter and allows visitors to see the unspoiled beauty along winding Sleah Head Drive. We proceed south to Dingle, a city on the peninsula that thrusts out into the Atlantic Ocean to claim Ireland's most westerly point. We pass through Sleah Head on the southwestern extremity of the peninsula. See the ancient stone beehive huts of pre-historic settlers and extensive panoramas giving mere glimpses of God's majestic hand in the landscapes of the Emerald Isle. Next, we proceed to Gallarus Oratory, an ancient dry stone construction whose longevity testifies to the skill of its builders. Held together completely by the weight of stones (no mortar) the building has withstood wind and rain for over 1300 years. It is typical of the type of church in which St. Patrick himself worshipped. Today's traveling concludes as we return to Limerick for dinner and overnight. [B,D]

Day 9: Wednesday 9/5, LIMERICK / GOUGANE BARRA PARK / BLARNEY CASTLE / CORK

Gougane Barra Park offers a scenic backdrop where towering hills collide with the tranquil beauty of Gougane Barra Lake on the shores of the River Lee. St. Finbarr's Oratory is uniquely positioned there to afford guests the opportunity to enjoy the majestic landscape in a prayerful, peaceful environment conducive to intimate one-on-one time with Jesus. Just behind the Oratory are the remains of St. Finbarr's Monastery from the 6th-century. After spending some time at Gougane Barra Park and St. Finbarr's Oratory, we continue our journey to Blarney Castle. The Castle is host to numerous visitors each year, who come to kiss the renowned Blarney Stone in hopes of gaining eternal eloquence. The stone itself is set in the wall below the battlements and to kiss it, one has to lean backwards (holding on to an iron railing) from the parapet walk. Then, we will have a little time at the Blarney Woolen Mills to browse through various types of Irish gifts, including Waterford crystal, Belleek China, Lladro, Aran sweaters, Irish crystal and linens, Irish jewelry and Celtic gifts. From there, we proceed to Cork, Ireland's 3rd most populated city following Dublin and Belfast. Cork City is a 6th-century monastic settlement, urbanized sometime between 915-922 when a trading port was founded by the Vikings, has always been an important seaport. Today, the city boasts two cathedrals, an opera house, the English Market, and the grounds of University College Cork. We check in at our hotel in Cork for dinner and overnight. [B,D]

Day 10: Thursday 9/6, CORK / ROCK OF CASHEL / DUBLIN
 We bid farewell to Cork today and move toward the Rock of Cashel, an impressive medieval complex called "The Acropolis of Ancient Ireland." The Rock of Cashel is one of the most spectacular archeological sites in Ireland. Dating from the 4th century, it was originally used as a fortress. Mighty stone walls encircle a complete round tower, a roofless abbey, a 12th-century Romanesque chapel, and numerous other buildings and high crosses. From there, we continue through the midland counties to Dublin, Ireland's capital city. Dublin has all the attractions of a modern city, combined with the beauty and heritage of the past. Elegant shops, hotels, galleries, coffee houses and a stunning variety of restaurants have sprung up on almost every street in the capital. The group will enjoy a city tour by bus, where we see the statue-lined O'Connell Street, Georgian Squares, Phoenix Park, and St. Patrick's Cathedral. We will stop at St. Mary's Pro Cathedral (subject to confirmation) for Mass. We check in at our hotel in Dublin for dinner and overnight. [B,D]

Day 11: Friday 9/7, DUBLIN / WICKLOW / GLENDALOUGH / DUBLIN
 Glendalough (pronounced Glen-doll-lock), home of the monastery established by St Kevin in the 6th century, is our first stop today. St Kevin was born in 498, of royal blood, but rejected his life of privilege and instead chose to live as a hermit in a cave in Glendalough. He founded the monastery and also went on to create a center of learning devoted to the care of the sick and the copying and illumination of manuscripts. Amid the remains of this monastic settlement, one can feel the powerful sense of peace and tranquility. From there, we visit and celebrate Mass at St. Kevin's Parish Church (subject to confirmation). Then, we return to Dublin. There will be free time this afternoon to explore the capital city, shop, or spend quiet time soaking in the sites and culture of Ireland. Those interested may want to visit Trinity College Library for the opportunity to admire the 1200-year-old "Book of Kells". This evening, we gather at the hotel to board our coach for the short drive to The Merry Ploughboy Pub, where we enjoy a fun, farewell dinner to the sounds of traditional Irish music and dance. Overnight in Dublin. [B,D]

Day 12: Saturday, September 8, 2018, DUBLIN / USA
 This morning we begin our journey back to the United States. We arrive home inspired by holiness of the saints and the grandeur of God's majestic landscape. [B]
