Day 2: Monday 9/30, AMSTERDAM / TOULOUSE / LOURDES

We proceed to our hotel to check in for dinner. This evening, we join other pilgrims from all over the world in the Candlelight Procession. Overnight in Lourdes. [D]

Day 3: Tuesday 10/1, LOURDES

We begin where Bernadette did...at the Boly Mill where she was born and the "Cachot," the abandoned prison where Bernadette's family lived in poverty. She lived at the Cachot at the time of the apparitions. At the age of 14, young Bernadette Soubirous was visited by Our Lady 18 times between February 11th and July 16th, 1858. The young saint described Our Lady as a "[lady] in white, the same height as myself, who greeted me with a nod of her head. This [lady] was beautiful beyond description. She had a blue sash around her white dress and yellow roses on her shoes. A long rosary hung from her arm, and she seemed to invite me to pray with her." Our Lady gave to Bernadette private, secret messages as well as messages to be shared with the world." Our Lady described herself to Bernadette as the "Immaculate Conception", revealed a miraculous spring, and asked that a chapel be built for pilgrimage. Obedient Bernadette delivered her messages. Next we visit the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception, the crypt, and the Grotto of Massabielle. The Grotto of Massabielle is the location where Our Lady instructed Bernadette to use her hands and dig to reveal the spring. Since March of 1858, the Church has recognized sixty-five miracles. Thousands of other inexplicable healings also took place at this holy site. Next, we visit the Basilica of the Rosary, the lower front level of the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception. The Basilica of the Rosary dates back to 1883-1889 when its construction replaced the original chapel on the site of the Blessed Mother's apparition to Bernadette. Then, we visit the baths. Those who wish to bathe in the miraculous waters will be able to do so. There will be free time (time permitting) to explore the sites that interest you most. Options include:

- Take a walk and see the Stations of the Cross (on hillside beside basilica).
- Visit the cemetery where the Soubirous family is buried [note: to get there, take the lift/elevator on the other side of the River Gave.
- Stop in at Sacred Heart Church. Bernadette was baptized in the Parish Church, called Church of Saint Peter, which was destroyed by fire. Renamed Sacred Heart, the new parish church was built in the late 1800s and has been used since then. Saved and moved to Sacred Heart Church is the baptismal font used for Bernadette.

BERNADETTE SOUBIROUS

- Visit the Chateau "Fort" for spectacular views of the city. Enjoy a self-guided tour inside the fort walls.
- Lourdes is packed with shops to browse through.

This evening, dinner will be at the hotel. After dinner, you have the opportunity to join other pilgrims from all over the world in the Candlelight Procession. Overnight in Lourdes. [B,D]

Day 4: Wednesday 10/2, LOURDES / TOULOUSE TO LYON TRAIN / LYON

We depart Lourdes and travel to Toulouse to board our train to Lyon. Upon our arrival, we proceed to the Cathedral of Lyon which was dedicated to St John the Baptist. Then, we check in at our hotel for dinner and overnight. [B,D]

Day 5: Thursday 10/3, LYON / ARS / NEVERS

This morning we proceed to the small town of Ars, the former home of St. John Vianney, patron of parish priests. In 1786, Jean-Marie-Baptiste Vianney was born to a poor French farmer and spent his childhood years as a field hand and shepherd on the family farm. Therefore, his education was on-hold until he was twenty which made his studies excessively challenging for him. Despite two failed attempts at taking the required testing for ordination into the priesthood, at the age of thirty he was finally ordained. However, even after his ordination, his superiors were clouded with doubt and he was labeled "incompetent" and in need of additional training. As a result, Jean was placed under the direction of Father Balley, a very holy priest from a nearby village. Upon the death of Father Balley, Fr Jean Vianney was transferred to the small village of Ars, where he (the Curé of Ars) would spend the rest of his life in service to the community. His life was simple in every aspect: clothing, food, living accommodations. He allowed himself two hours of sleep per night and they were not typically restful ones as he was constantly assaulted and attacked by the devil. Physical and verbal abuse and deafening noises were routine and sometimes witnessed by male parishioners. It wasn't long before the Ars community recognized the humble Curé's gifts of healing and his profound accuracy in reading the hearts and minds of penitents. As word spread, it was reported that the Curé was spending 13 to 17 excruciating hours hearing confessions in a small, hot confessional. After his death, St John Vianney was found to be incorrupt. We visit the Basilica of Ars, the former home of the Curé, and the underground church. We also have the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation in the confessional where he spent 17 hours a day for over 30 years. From there, we proceed northwest to Nevers, where we check in at our hotel for dinner and overnight. [B,D]

CURÉ OF ARS

Day 6: Friday 10/4, NEVERS / CHARTRES

It was in Nevers that St. Bernadette spent the last 13 years of her life as a nun. Here we visit the Convent of St. Gildard where the incorrupt body of St Bernadette lies in state. At the age of 13, this holy saint received the first of 18 visions from our Blessed Mother. As you look at St Bernadette you will see the same fingers that dug in the earth at Massabielle and the same eyes that saw the Virgin Mary. Then, we travel northwest to Chartres, southwest of Paris. The Cathedral of Chartres is one of the greatest architectural treasures ever built and today boasts nearly perfect preservation of its original details and design from 1260. According to tradition, the Cathedral houses the Blessed Virgin Mary's tunic (Sancta Camisia), said to have been offered to the cathedral by Charlemagne who had accepted the gift during a trip he made to the holy city of Jerusalem. Drawing visitors from all over the world, the Chartres Cathedral has been and continues to be a popular and important Marian pilgrimage site. The stained glass windows dating from the 12th and 13th centuries are renowned for the depth and intensity of their blue tones, known as Chartres blue. Our day concludes as we check in at our hotel for dinner and overnight. [B,D]

Day 7: Saturday 10/5, CHARTRES / LISIEUX

From Chartres we travel to Lisieux, home of St Therese of the Child Jesus. She is the one whom Pope Pius X called "the greatest saint of modern times". We visit Les Buissonnets, the family home where Therese spent the early years of her life before entering Carmel at the age of fifteen. Then, we proceed to the Carmelite Convent which houses the sacred relic of St Therese's body. Our next stop is the beautiful Basilica of Lisieux where we have time to spend in prayer and visit the gift shop before we check in at our hotel for dinner and overnight. [B,D]

Day 8: Sunday 10/6, LISIEUX / COLLEVILLE-SUR-MER / OMAHA BEACH / LISIEUX

The Normandy area is steeped in WWII history. Today we will learn more about America's role in the war, visit the American Military Cemetery at Omaha Beach to pay tribute to our brave brothers who offered their most valiant defense for our freedoms, and spend time at the Museum of the D'Day Invasion. From there, we return to Lisieux for dinner and overnight. [B,D]

Day 9: Monday 10/7, LISIEUX / ROUEN / PARIS

We bid farewell to Lisieux and make our way through the French countryside to Rouen. We will proceed to Place du Vieux Marche where St. Joan of Arc was burned alive at the stake by the English in 1431. We visit St. Joan of Arc Church, a new edifice completed in 1979 with its unusual roof evocative of the flames and the medieval Cathedral with its famous buttresses, towers and beautiful stained glass windows. The cathedral contains many tombs of the Norman Dukes and Renaissance tombs of the Cardinals of Amboise. We spend time in Rouen and then travel to Paris. Upon our arrival, we enjoy a bus tour of Paris viewing sites like the Champs Elysee, Eiffel Tower, Arc de Triomphe, the Royal Palace and the Louvre. Our day concludes as we check in at our hotel for dinner and overnight. [B,D]

Day 10: Tuesday 10/8, PARIS

We begin today as we ascend Montmartre hill to visit the world famous Basilica of Sacre-Coeur. In the Basilica, above the high altar, there is a monstrance containing the Consecrated Host. The practice of perpetual adoration has been uninterrupted in Sacre Coeur since 1885. We will be able to spend time in adoration with our Lord. Then, there is free time to explore independently. Suggestions include:

- Churches: St. Sulpice, St. Eustache, St. Denis Basilica, St-Gervais-St-Protais, Eglise de la Madeleine, St. Etienne du Mont, Saint-Paul-Saint-Louis, etc.
- Famous Landmarks: French Pantheon, Arc de Triomphe, the obelisk in Place de la Concorde, Place de la Bastille, Pont Neuf bridge, etc.
- The Iron Giant: The Eiffel Tower soars 1,063 feet into the air (equivalent to an 81-story building). La Tour Eiffel, as it's known locally, was designed and erected in 1889 to serve as the entrance arch for the World's Fair that was being hosted in Paris that year. At first, the structure's aesthetic appeal was heavily criticized by influential French artists and intellectuals. However, over time the tower became a global icon making France the residence of one of the most recognized and visited structures in the world. Take some time to marvel at its massive presence.

- Museums: The world-famous Louvre Gallery was built as a medieval fortress in 1546. It became a residence to the royal family, and then, under the French Republic, a museum and home of a massive art collection, now containing artifacts works dating from the beginning of civilization up to the 19th Century. The most renowned highlights of the collection are Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa, the Winged Victory of Samothrace and Venus de Milo. Other options include Musee d'Orsay, Musee de l'Orangerie, Musee Rodin, Picasso Museum, Air and Space Museum, Science Museum, or Centre Pompidou.
- Palaces and Gardens: Palais and Le Jardin du Luxembourg, Jardin des Tuileries, Palais de Chaillot (Trocadero).
- Shopping: Souvenir shops are abundant. Visit Monmartre's Place du Tertre. The left bank (by Notre Dame) has souvenirs and upscale designer shops at Saint-Germain-des-Pres Quarter.

This evening, join friends or enjoy a private sampling of French cuisine at the Paris restaurant of your choice as dinner is on your own. [B]

Day 11: Wednesday 10/9, PARIS

This morning, we proceed to the Shrine of the Miraculous Medal on Rue de Bac where Our Lady appeared to St Catherine Laboure in 1830. There we will see the incorrupt body of St Catherine and the waxed body of St Louise de Marillac who, with the help of St Vincent de Paul, established the Daughters of Charity. Nearby, we make a quick visit to the chapel in the motherhouse of the Congregation of the Mission which houses the incorrupt body of St Vincent de Paul. From there, we visit the famous Cathedral of Notre Dame which is the most famous Gothic Cathedral in the world devoted to the Blessed Mother. The cathedral is more than 700 years old and took 87 years to complete from the laying of the cornerstone in 1163 to the completion of the Western façade and northern rose window in 1250. It is best characterized by ogee archways, ribbed vaults, flying buttresses, rose stained glass windows, ornately crafted spires, and gargoyles, which are the guardians of grand cathedrals. This evening, we enjoy a farewell dinner with wine. Overnight in Paris. [B,D]
